CAPITAL CITY NEWS NOTES

Matters of Interest Transpiring in and Around Richmond.

Memorial Day and How It Will Be Observed, Guessing the Name of the Successor to the Late Secretary Gresham. The Sound Money People Active.

Special Dispatch to the Virginian.

To-morrow being Memorial Day the occasion will be generally observed as a holiday here. The government offices, postoffice, banks and freight depots will be closed. In the afternoon Hollywood Memorial Day will be celebrated. There will be a big parade, which will be participated in by all the local military, veterans and by many children. Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge will preside over the exercises, and the oration will be delivered by Rev. Frank Stringfellow, the noted actor. The Federal veterans will hold services at Seven Pines at noon.

Two gentlemen here in discussing the probable successor of Secretary of State Gresham, decided to guess each three names. They wrote down their selections without conference. Here are the guesses of the first: Edward J. Phelps, William L. Wilson, James C. Carter, W. C. Whitney, W. F. Vilas and Lador Raynor. The second chose the following: Edward F. Uhl, W. C. Whitney, Don M. Dickinson, Holmes Conrad, W. E. Russell and Edward J. Phelps. Afterwards when too late, one gentleman wanted to amend his guess by naming Senator George Gray, of Delaware.

The City Council is now conducting an investigation into the management of the city almshouse. It appears that no wrong doing is suspected, but the investigation is simply a business-like one to see if everything is being properly done for the inmates.

The sound money people are quietly talking over their plans for organization and will soon carry them into effect. It is proposed to have a central club house and branch ones throughout the State. As soon as plans are perfected the State will be flooded with literature and all the available speakers will be sent out.

BASEBALL.

Games Played Yesterday and the Gossip of the Diamond.

By Southern Associated Press.

Petersburg, Va., May 29.—Petersburg won today's game by heavy and timely batting in the seventh inning. Norfolk took the lead at the start and held it until the seventh, but Weeks, who had pitched a good game to this inning, filled the bases on balls.

Two singles and a couple of home runs did the work, piling up seven runs and winning the game. Gill's phenomenal catch of a long fly in right field with a quick throw, cutting off the runner from first base, was great ball playing and he was loudly applauded. Foreman was very effective, holding the visitors down to five scattering hits. Score:

Gossip About the Norfolk Ball Team

Mr. A. A. O'Neill, the new owner of the Norfolk Club, has arrived home, and in conversation with a representative of THE VIRGINIAN said that "he had not been idle while away, and that he had been successful in signing new men who are known to be good players and that they would report for duty just as soon as they possibly could." "This thing of experimenting with unknown men," said Mr. O'Neill, "has proven a very expensive and unsatisfactory experience to me, and now that I own the club absolutely, I shall spare no pains or expense to give the people of Norfolk a first-class aggregation of ball players. They should have a good club, for they certainly patronize the games liberally," he continued, "and I am fully determined that this city shall be represented by as good a team as it is possible to procure."

McGinn and Kelly have been secured and others whom the public will heartily approve of." Mr. W. S. Hoggins, who came to this league as an umpire, has been selected by Mr. O'Neill as the manager of the new Norfolk club and as Mr. Hoggins has had a great deal of experience in that capacity, he will no doubt get together a team of ball players that will satisfy the expectations of the most ardent rooter, as well as please those who want a team to keep up the credit of the city by playing good, clean, gentlemanly ball.

Dear Sir—Two years ago I was pale and emaciated, food seemed to me a torment in my stomach. A physician pronounced me suffering from Catarrh of the Stomach, but he could not help me. I lived a month without solid food and when I tried to eat I would vomit. At this time I began taking Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and in two weeks I was decidedly better. Then I took "Golden Medical Discovery" and I am now in good health, and never felt better in my life. I have a better color, am more cheerful, and have no distress after eating—having gained thirteen pounds since I began taking them. Yours truly, MARY ANGLISH.
